Samuel Chadwick Jr., Beaufort again this month coached his Pinehurst Academy Heights School to the state basketball crown.

Coach Chadwick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chadwick, 514 Pollock St., Beaufort.

The Tigers were 1955 champions and went into the finals at North Carolina College March 10, determined to keep their crown. As representatives of the eastern district, having downed teams from Albemarle and Southern Pines, the tigers met Rosenwald High School of Catawba in McLendon gymnasium.

Before a capacity crowd the Pinehurst boys led by Big Joel Harris and Guard J. Jackson jumped to an early lead and were never headed. They romped over the western contenders by a score of 59-42.

The Tigers, during the past two years in seasonal and tournament play, have won 47 games and lost four. During the past season they rang up 1404 points in 23 games averaging 61 points a game.

Coach Chadwick is a graduate of Queen Street High School, Beaufort.
