

Ben Wade Rescues Dodgers In St. Louis Game Tuesday

Morehead's Native Son Sews Up Win, Hits Homer

Brooklyn.—Brooklyn bats finally sung as advertised Tuesday, roughing up six St. Louis pitchers for 14 hits in a 14-8 victory that spoiled Eddie Stanky's Ebbets Field "homecoming" as Cardinal manager despite a pair of two-run homers by Stan Musial.

Preacher Roe, the Dodgers' "Tuesday pitcher," pitched like it was Wednesday or Thursday as he let most of an early 6-0 lead slip through his fingers in his fifth straight Tuesday start.

Ben Wade of Morehead City rescued the Preacher in the fourth and captured his first major league win. He also hit his first major league homer.

Outfielder Larry Miggins of the Cards hit his first big league homer with Wally Westlake on base in the fourth.

From the moment Gil Hodges drove his third home run into the lower left field seats, following Duke Snider's double in the second, the Brooks never were headed. Roe, however, managed to give the 4,951 customers some nail-biting moments in the fourth.

Hodges' blast in the second and a four-run outburst that chased loser Joe Presko and wild Willard Schmidt in the third gave Roe a big cushion. But five straight hits brought Wade from the bullpen.

Stan Musial, now "the" Cardinal first baseman, drove a tremendous two-run homer over the right field screen in the seventh. In the ninth he repeated the trick. On a 3-for-5 afternoon, Musial boosted his batting average 17 points to .311.

Ben and Two Others

J. A. DuBois, chamber-of-commerce manager, commented this week that a statement in an upstate paper regarding Ben Wade and his being the only pitcher in an American Legion junior ball team here, was incorrect. Other pitchers were West Taylor, Beaufort, and Clayton Fulcher, jr., Atlantic.
