

Smyrna to Play Host To Atlantic Tonight

The Smyrna Blue Devils will play host to Atlantic tonight in the first basketball game to be played between county teams this year. Based on last year's performances, the Smyrna girls and the Atlantic boys will be in the favorites role.

Friday night in a return engagement at Atlantic.

Smyrna coach Jimmie Parkin will be starting an inexperienced team with a freshman, two sophomores and two juniors in the starting lineup. Pirate coach Roy Cockerham will start three seniors and two juniors against the Blue Devils.

Starting for the Blue Devils will be Dale Lewis and Braxton Piner at guards, Horace Lawrence at center and Curtis Nelson and Paul Wade at forwards.

Atlantic starters will be Roger Harris and George Golden at forwards, Stevie Mason at center and Bobby Nelson and Sammy Salter at guards.

Starting players for the Smyrna lassies will be Jean Willis, Carolyn Phelps and Brenda Baker, forwards, and Clarice Willis, Brenda Willis and Carol Willis, guards.

Starting for the Atlantic sextet will be Anita Brown, Rita Gilgo and Linda Taylor, forwards and Brenda Salter, Bonnie Brickhouse and Jencey Mason, guards.

The two schools will meet again