

Smyrna, Pamlico Meet Again To Break Tuesday's 2-All Knot

The Blue Devils were slated to meet Pamlico at Smyrna after press time yesterday, weather permitting, to break a 2-all deadlock rained out after the eighth inning Tuesday at Smyrna.

Pitcher Kenny Lewis was expected to return to the mound to complete the contest. He struck out 11, walked two and allowed only two hits in Tuesday's round.

The walks and hits came in the sixth inning, and gave Pamlico its tying runs.

Smyrna scored one run in the fourth. Charles Lawrence reached first on a single, and moved to second on a single by Kenny. He advanced to third on a wild pitch and scored on a single by Gray Lewis.

The Devils picked up their second run in the fifth, off doubles by Jimmy Bradford and Tommy McGee. McGee got the RBI. In the eight-inning stretch, the Blue Devils collected 12 hits, but left seven men on base.

Lupton handled mound chores for Pamlico, striking out ten and walking three.
