County Basketball Season to Open Friday

Smyrna travels to Atlantic Friday night to open the county basketball season. The Pirates have a new coach, new team, new uniforms, and a good as-new gym. Coach Roy Cockerham says he may have quite a surprise for Stewart Daniels and the Smyrna teams.

Coach Daniels doesn't have too much to say, but he is wearing a mighty wide grin these days. Perhaps he has some surprises cooked up for Atlantic and the rest of the conference too.

Newport opens against Atlantic Nov. 13, when they travel to the Pirates' home court. The Hawks were the class of both the county and the Seashore Conference last year, and coach Bob King has four of his first string back this year.

Morehead City and Beaufort basketball players are still practicing football. Neither of these teams play until December. The schedules for the five county teams follow:
