Mill Creek, Harkers Island Split Doubleheader Sunday

Mill Creek and Harkers Island split a twin bill in Saltwater play Sunday. Mill Creek won the first game, 21-4. Harkers Island came back and won the second, 2-1.

Mill Creek scored nine runs in the first 2 innings of the opener. Pitcher Lloyd Culpepper coasted the rest of the way. Starter Walter Thomas was charged with the loss.

In the nightcap, Harkers Island scored in the second; but Mill Creek tied it up in the fourth. Harkers Island scored the winning run in the last inning when Cranston Moore singled, stole second, and scored on an infield error. Wilson Davis was the winning pitcher.

In the day's only other contests, Beaufort and Atlantic split a doubleheader. Beaufort won the first, 4-1, and Atlantic took the second, 4-0.
