

... Collins can! Collins!
Collins! He's our man! If he can't do it ...

THE TEAM THAT BROKE THE 91-GAME WINNING STREAK
Kneeling, James "Collins" Nolan, Danny McQueen. Standing, Edward Sanderson, Richard Cummins, Chuck Sledge, Jimmy Smithwick, George Styron, Butch Henderson,
Bernard Leary. Not pictured: David O'Neal.

Gannon's Gunners

Though his shining past record could hardly be exceeded, Mr. Gannon Talbert, MCHS basketball coach, competently assisted by ten powaahouses, brought even greater grandeur to Morehead High this past season. Viewed as a whole, Morehead's performance was highlighted by the three glittering trophies brought home. One of these trophies was for co-championship of the Coastal Plains; it represented one of the greatest EAGLE triumphs: conquest of Beaufort—and an end to the latter's 91-game consecutive win streak. Jones Central was the scene of the conference tourney, where after once more swooping down upon the Seadogs, the EAGLES reigned supreme. Though the ultimate victory was not theirs, the "Talbert's Temple Terrors" were runners-up in the District 2 playoff, succumbing gracefully to the old nemesis, Beaufort. Mr. Talbert directed his '62 cagers to one of the best seasons in years. The credit should go to the rightful person; so we must give a big Hoorah! for our coach—he's brimful of Talbert POWAA!

... Talbert can! Talbert!
Talbert! He's our man! If he can't do it, NOBODY CAN!

... Danny can! Danny! Danny!
He's our man! If he can't do it ...

... Richard can! Richard!
Richard! He's our man! If he can't do it ...

