

Fans Honor Morehead Grid Team at Banquet Monday

The Morehead City football team was honored at a football banquet at the Hotel Fort Macon Monday night. Five players were singled out for special awards.

James Guthrie, a senior half-back with four years varsity experience behind him, was selected the outstanding player on the team. The choice was made by other players on the team.

Lynwood Durham was named the best defensive player, Freddie Oglesby was selected as the best offensive player and Jerry Garner was named for the sportsmanship award.

The only junior to win an award was quarterback Jackie McQueen. He was named by Coach Norman Clark as the most improved player on the team. Coach Clark makes this presentation annually.

Others who supplied trophies were: Leary's, sportsman-Carteret Drug Store, best offensive player; Hardware and Building Supply, best defensive player; and Morehead City Drug Store, outstanding player.

Guthrie, representing the team, gave Coach Clark a gift certificate for a sweater and gave Coach Hugh Gordon a gift certificate for a trophy.

Herbert Phillips acted as toastmaster for the banquet. Charles Willis gave the invocation. Jerry Willis, president of the Jaycees, welcomed the guests.

Bernard Leary, president of the Touchdown Club, introduced Harry Stewart, former director of the Wolfpack Club, North Carolina State College, who was speaker for the evening.

Coaches Clark and Gordon and school Principal Lenwood Lee discussed the football program and the demands brought on by the growth of the school.

Trophies were presented by Jimmy Wallace, George R. Wallace, Buck Matthews Jr., Nick Galantis and Coach Clark.

The coach introduced the seniors on the team. They were Durham, Guthrie, Oglesby, Garner, Dennis Menden, Danny Grayback and manager Bill Fox. He introduced Mokey Lassiter, Jimmy Lawrence and McQueen as next years co-captains.

Immediately after the program, Mr. Stewart showed films of the State College-Virginia ball game.

Persons and businesses who furnished meals for the players and other guests were Capt. Otis Purifoy, Garner's Gulf Station, P. H. Geer and Son, Bill Fox, Maola Milk and Ice Cream Co., Busy Bee Restaurant, Nick Galantis and the Elks Club.

Hawkettes Claim Second Victory over Jasper

By EDDIE LYNN GARNER

The Hawkettes claimed their second victory over the Jasper girls as they romped to a 62-51 decision on the Jasper court Tuesday night.

The Newport girls held the lead during most of the first quarter and were ahead 10-9 when the buzzer sounded. In the second quarter the Jasper girls outscored the Hawkettes 16-12, thus the half-time score was 25-22 in their favor.

The Newport team came to life in the second half as they scored 18 in the third quarter and 22 in the fourth.

The girls from Jasper had a very slow third quarter, scoring only 7. They were much more active in the fourth and dropped in 19.

Becky Garner, Newport's lone senior forward, scored 21 to lead the Hawkettes to victory. Margaret Lilly had 20 for a very close second.

Jenny Garner scored 18, Ada Murdoch had one and Libba Gould hit two.

Rita Harris sank 8 field goals and 11 foul shots to capture high scoring honors for the game with 27. Peggy Morton hit 14 and Myrtle McDaniel scored 10.

The starting forwards for Newport were Becky Garner, Jenny Garner, and Lilly. The guards on the starting lineup were Clyde Mann, Peggy Jo Wallace, and Linda Dickinson.

The substitutes were Ada Murdoch, Bette Green and Libba Gould at forward positions; Bonnie Garner, Lana Linchberger, Linda Garner, Jodee Hohly and Gwynne Locky at guard positions.

Smyrna Blue Devils Sweep Twin Bill from Atlantic

Smyrna cage teams swept a twin bill from the visiting Atlantic Pirates Tuesday night. The Smyrna girls won the first game by a 64-38 score and the Blue Devils won an overtime thriller, 60-58, in the feature game.

Jean Willis scored 40 points as she led the Smyrna sextet to victory in the opener. She hit 19 field goals and two extra points to roll up her total.

Carolyn Phelps scored 20 points on 10 field goals and Brenda Baker, the third starting forward, hit four of five free throws for four points. Brenda Willis, Carol Willis and Clarice Willis started the game as guards.

Sally Hooper was the only Smyrna substitute of the game. She came in during the fourth quarter when Carol Willis fouled out.

Rita Gilgo paced the Atlantic attack with 27 points. She hit 10 field goals and seven of nine free throws. Anita Brown scored 19 points, Linda Taylor scored 10, Bonnie Brickhouse scored two and Catherine Willis scored one.

Brenda Selter, Jency Mason and Brickhouse started at the guard positions and Coach Roy Cockerham shifted his players considerably during the contest.

The boys game was a dilly. The Pirates grabbed a 15-9 lead in the first quarter but the Blue Devils scored 20 points in the second quarter while holding the Pirates to 15, moving to within one point at 30-29.

Braxton Piner hit two straight shots as the second half opened to put the Blue Devils into a 32-30 lead. Bobby Nelson sparked an Atlantic rally in the fourth quarter after the Pirates had gone into the period trailing by a 45-41 margin.

Nelson hit six straight points for the Pirates and pushed them back into the lead at 49-46. With the score tied at 51 all, Nelson hit on a fast break play and seconds later stole the ball and scored to give the Pirates a 58-51 lead.

Piner hit for Smyrna to close the gap to two points but moments for a good percentage. Carroll Hill hit a long hook shot for Smyrna to break the scoring ice.

Danny Harvey hit a free throw for Atlantic but it was countered by a free throw by Curtis Nelson. Harris hit a jump shot for Atlantic to tie the score. Atlantic had possession of the ball with the score tied at 58 all and 15 seconds remaining.

Dale Lewis broke up an Atlantic pass and went all the way down court to score for the Blue Devils, two seconds before the game was over. Atlantic did not get the ball down the court before the final buzzer sounded.

Bobby Nelson of Atlantic and Piner of Smyrna shared scoring honors with 18 points each. Others who scored for the winners were Lewis, 11, Curtis Nelson, 14, Hill, 15, and Horace Lawrence, 2. Paul Wade did not score.

Scoring for Atlantic were George Golden, 15, Harris, 13, Stevie Mason, 8, Sammy Salter, 3, and Danny Harvey, 1.
