

Smyrna Blue Devils Blank Newport for Third Victory

Hawks Lose 11-0 at Home Diamond Tuesday

Fred Bartholomew's Blue Devils of Smyrna kept their large margin win streak going Tuesday when they dumped Newport 11-0. It was the third win of the year for the visiting Smyrna men.

The Blue Devils dropped their opener to Beaufort, but since that time they have scored 48 runs in three games and limited their opponents to only one run.

It was the Newport Hawks' opener. So far the Hawks have only four games scheduled.

Sterling Hancock was the hero of the day for the Blue Devils as he pitched his first no-hitter of the season. Hancock dealt the Hawks a blank, allowing only two runners to reach first, both on walks.

One of the runners was picked off first base by the Blue Devil pitcher. He faced 22 men in the seven-inning ball game and struck out nine.

The Smyrna pitching ace had quite a bit of help from another Blue Devil pitcher. Bryon Styron put the visiting Smyrna team out in front 2-0 in the first inning as Danny Gillikin, shortstop was issued a walk by the Newport pitcher and Styron blasted a home run to earn himself a free trip around the bases.

Styron also doubled in the third inning to bring home Terry Lewis, second baseman, and Gillikin.

The Blue Devils were quite active at the plate as they pounded the Newport pitcher for 11 hits.

Coach Bartholomew says he is looking for another game this week with a team that has an open date. Their next conference game will be with Newport Tuesday at Smyrna.

Monarchs Win First Game At Queen Street

The W. S. King Monarchs, behind the one-hit pitching of sophomore William Tootle, defeated the Queen Street Knights 1-0 Wednesday in Beaufort.

The Monarchs scored their one run in the first inning when James Walker singled and stole second, then Junius Reese singled Walker home.

William Tootle had a no-hitter going until the sixth inning when he allowed William Nolen a single.

The Monarchs traveled to Jacksonville Tuesday for a game with Georgetown high school.

The Knights will travel to Williamston Tuesday for a game.
