John Pasteur

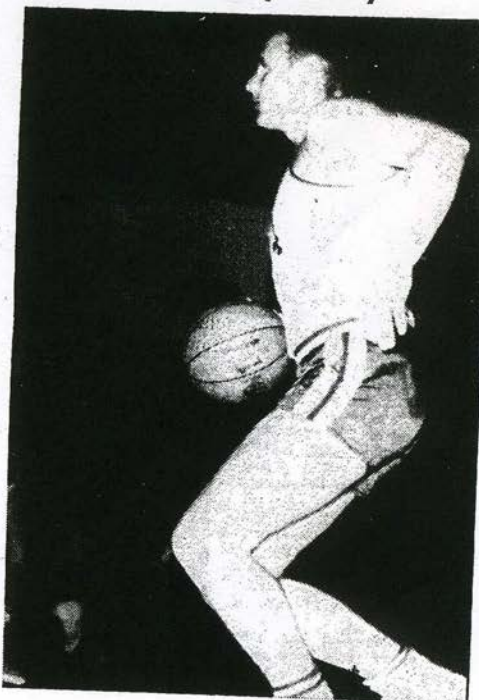

★

JOHN PASTEUR—at forward. He is a junior at Queen Street high school, has played basketball for three years and has averaged 11.20 points per game during regular season play. Pasteur led the Knights in rebounding, is a graceful defensive player, and a key man on Queen Street's offense. Although not often the team's high scorer, he has been invaluable in playmaking situations. Pasteur is a member of the Lettermen's club, is on the honor roll, has served as a class officer, and has played football two years and baseball during all three years of his high school career.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pasteur.

Sammy Lilly

★

SAMMY LILLY—at guard. Lilly is a senior at Newport high school. He has lettered in basketball for four years, and has a scoring average this season of 20.50. The Hawks have depended on Lilly to provide the team's offensive and defensive leadership. Playing at guard-forward, Lilly has been a valuable rebounder and playmaker. He is an A student, member of the Monogram, French and Beta clubs, and belongs to the Future Teachers of America. He also has lettered in baseball for four years at Newport.

Sammy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus T. Lilly.
