

Andy Raynor pitched the Carteret Tides to a 5-2 victory over the Newport Red Sox yesterday in Swinson Park. He was headed for a perfect game and wound up with a one-hit masterpiece, with no earned runs, to give the Tides the 1975 championship of Seashore League baseball. Raynor fanned ten, walked one and collected a single, double and triple in his four times-at-bat.

outfield three times. "Play-me-anywhere-I'm-needed" Wayne Mobley caught yesterday and singled twice in four trips.

As a matter of fact, it proved a terrific ball game, with each team committing just one error.

Just don't forget Saturday, Sept. 27, at 8 p.m. in Swinson Park. A squad of Seashore League All-Stars will be out there trying. It's always fun and open season on the champs.
