

WIN Tournament at Wilmington

John Lynch, Beaufort Guard, Chosen Outstanding Player

Beaufort cagers walked away with the championship in the 13th annual Star-News tournament at Wilmington, by defeating Dixon in the New Hanover gym 86-47 Saturday night.

Beaufort was the winner from the start and held a 23-8 lead at the close of the first quarter. Dixon was behind 41-23 at the half and trailed 65-39 after the third. B. G.

O'Neal was high scorer for Beaufort's Sea Dogs with a total of 22 points and Gary Copeland grabbed rebounds right and left, giving Beaufort control of both backboards.

Jimmy Parkin and Copeland were the mainstays for the winners in the third quarter and Copeland's follow shots and lay-ups constituted most of the points for the winners in the third period.

O'Neal pocketed 22 points for the Sea Dogs, Copeland 20, Jimmy Parkin 17, John Lynch 10, Willis 9, Mason 2 and Modlin 2. Marshall Smith was the top scorer for Dixon with 28 points and Durwood Teachey had 10.

Trophies were awarded following the victory. John Lynch, a steady, hard-working Beaufort guard, was voted the most outstanding player in the tournament and was given a championship trophy. Each member of the championship squad received a gold basketball and silver miniatures went to the runnersups.

Beaufort's first game of the tournament was played Thursday night when they took Topsail 72-36. B. G. O'Neal was high for the winners with 18 points, Copeland scored 15 and Gillikin 14. Gedbury and Edens tied for first place honors by scoring 12 points apiece for the losers.
