not only on his students and players but also on the youth of the community as a whole, by being a role model and going the extra mile. He cared enough to go that extra mile for the young men of the community.

"It wasn't so much that Daddy kept in touch with his players, as them coming back to him to show him what they had accomplished. Of all the people that I ever met in my life, he is and will always be, one of the most fair-minded. I think everybody will agree with that. He was always ready to give someone the benefit of the doubt. He did not expect the impossible unless he could do the impossible himself."

As I end my tribute to Mr. McQuaid, I realize that I am one of the fortunate ones to have had this man as a teacher and as a positive influence on my days as a student athlete at Beaufort High School as well as setting a strong example for my adult life. Mr. McQuaid, coach and teacher, a man to be remembered.
