

#20 Thanks for a Job Well Done!

Sturgis did an outstanding job in documenting the Seashore League for 1975, 1976 and part through May of 1977. He was as the legendary baseball sports writer for the Carteret County News Times.

Prior to retiring to North Carolina, he wrote sports for the Buffalo, NY Evening News, and after serving as Captain in the Army, he wrote sports for Buffalo Evening News again for seven years. He was sports director of WEBR radio stations in Buffalo and became sports director of a radio station in St Louis, Mo.; and worked as sports director of three stations in Houston, Texas.
