

Smyrna Bows 5-4 at Dixon

The Smyrna Blue Devils suffered a 5-4 loss in the seventh Friday at Dixon. The Bulldogs made up a two-run deficit in the final inning, on a two-run homer, then scored the winning run.

Smyrna picked up two runs in the first inning, on a walk and two hits. The club added two more in the sixth, on a single, walk and an error.

Despite Dixon's two-run burst in the third, the Devils led by two going into the seventh. But the visitors couldn't stop the Bulldog rally.

Kenny Lewis went the distance for Smyrna to take the loss. He struck out eight, walked three and allowed seven hits. Teammates committed six errors. The loss gives the Devils a 3-7 record.
