

#210 Eastern Blues' Dream. A Dream that came true!

Blues Win Championship – 1974 and Get Eastern Park

Result of A Dream - EASTERN PARK: "One of the founding goals the Eastern Blues was that their children would have an environment conducive for sports, and nice place for them to play." – Joe Boy Willis, October 1973

Jody Willis, Marshallberg, prepares to take-off for first base after knocking a softball to left field Friday in a midget softball game. The future Eastern Blues slugger is the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Willis.

April 18, 1975