pitched himself a 4-hitter and struck out 16.

Wilson Davis' veteran crew gave Dallas all the support he needed at bat and in the field. Braxton Piner unloaded a vicious home run into the woods along the right-field line and big Paul Dameron ran his heart out to record a triple.

KENNY LEWIS, still recovering from a serious operation for a ruptured spinal disc, insisted upon getting himself a piece of the Blues' action. He entered the game as a pinch-hitter and smashed a roaring base hit on the very first pitch. A normal Kenny would have made it into a double had not first-base coach Wilson Davis all but tackled him to flag down the Lewis Express and hold Kenny to a single.

Richard Collins showed the Coastal Greys' best effort with a home run over the left-field ditch off a good pitch by Dallas Arthur.

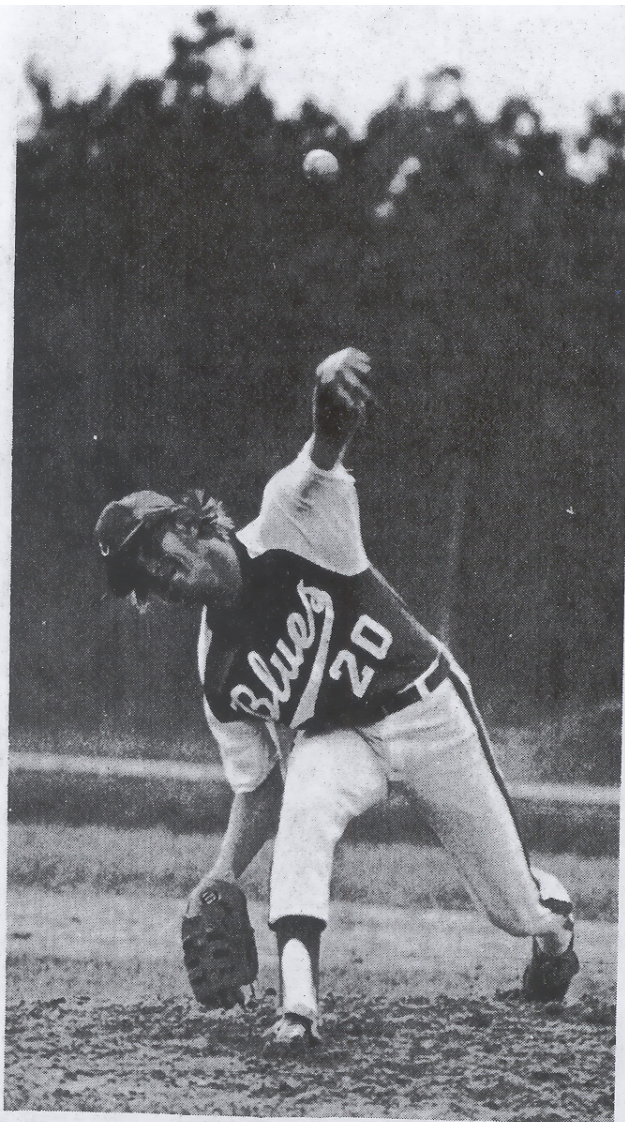

CRAIG WEBER celebrated the arrival of his new son by going 3 for 3 at the plate, scoring 3 runs and stealing 4 bases in the Red Sox victory.
