CARTERET

All-Stars Set for Game Sunday in Morehead

The Carteret County league all-star game pitting standouts from the East against the West will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Morehead City ball park.

The three East teams, Beaufort, Atlantic, and Harkers Island, will send their stars against players taken from the Morehead City, Salter Path and Newport clubs.

Manager of the West team will be Tye Frost, who regularly gives his talents to the Salter Path team; and the East team will be led by Grover Willis of Atlantic and Frank Langdale of Beaufort.

County baseball experts are predicting that the game will be close and the odds on the game are just about even, the shading depending on which section is speaking.

The probable starting line-up for the East will be John Hamilton of Atlantic at first base who is now hitting the ball at a .471 clip; Otis Johnson of Beaufort at second base with an average of .372; Rodney Smith of Atlantic at shortstop leading the team with a batting average of .500; Johnnie Willis of Atlantic at third base with an average of .384; Carl Sadler of Beaufort in left field batting at .380; Jerry Guthrie of Harkers Island in center-field with a .232 average; Sammy Daniels of Beaufort in right field with an average of .324; and Clem (Snoball) Gaskill of Harkers Island at the catching post with an average of .281.

Probable pitchers for the East will be Clyde Owens of Beaufort with a 7-1 record, Ralph Lawrence of Harkers Island with a 3-2 record; Calvin Hodges of Beaufort with 4-0, and Roy McKamey of Atlantic with 4-2.

On the bench for the East will be Billy Neal of Harkers Island, a utility infielder batting at .246; Julius Willis of Atlantic, an outfielder, who is hitting at .307; and Cranston Moore of Harkers Island, an infielder, whose average stands at .260.

The probable line-up for the West will send Bill Myers of Newport to first base hitting at .333; Lou Prince of Morehead City at second base with an average of .454; Jimmy Parkins of Salter Path, shortstop, with a .309 average; Herb Holloman of Salter Path at third base with a .421 average; Abram Willis of Salter Path in left field with a hefty .517 average; Lloyd Culpepper of Newport in center field with a .350 average; Charles Freeman of Morehead City in right field with a .239 average; and Bobby Willis of Morehead City at the catcher's post with a .294 average.

Probable pitchers will be Bobby Bass with a 2-3 record, Walter Thomas of Salter Path with 4-3, and McClannon of Newport with 2-2.

Spare infielders with their averages will be Tommy Culpepper of Newport, .250, and Henry Frost of Salter Path, .256. Outfielders are George Newkirk of Morehead City, .321, and Jimmy Willis of Morehead City, .208. Jimmy Webb of Morehead City and Frank Cahoon of Newport will coach the West team.
