U MIGHT SAY that Tuesday and night added up as nights to mber for the Willan family and er Jay Garner.

ss Willan managed the Carteret to two wins in a row, 6-5, over Bern on Tuesday, with his son gie Willan, pitching a 5-hitter and er coming within a whisker of a tter in last evening's 3-0 victory Havelock.

Robby Morris and the Ross brothers, Jim and Tim, paced New Bern to its come-from-behind 6-3 victory in last night's second game. Morris pitched 3 and one-third innings of shutout relief ball, striking out 7 and walking not a batter. Jim and Tim each hit home runs, the only circuit

blows of the tourney.

BOYS WILL BE BOYS, so the Seashore League adults, ranging in age from 16 to 45, would doubtless outplay Willan's All-Stars over the long haul.

But the way his youngsters hustled and fielded Tuesday and last night, they'd give the Eastern Blues and any other Seashore team the game of their

In fact, we'll see what we shall see tomorrow night when the leading Blues, just home from the National Baseball Congress Regionals in Roxboro, face the vastly improved Salter Path Braves at 8 o'clock in Swinson.

Brad Piner is slated to pitch for the Blues against Jimmy Davis of the Braves in what shapes up as one honey of a duel of fast-ball righthanders.
