THEN DISASTER struck Sunday afternoon as Lefty Marvin Johnson pitched a 5-inning no-hitter in quelling the Carteret Stars, 12-3. Dean Barrow broke the spell with a clean single in the 6th. Chadwick and Georgie Willan collected the only other hits. Georgie blasted a double and scored 2 runs.

Jay Garner, ace pitcher

BILL SPRINGLE, the fine Carteret catcher, sustained some strained muscles and a numbness which hampered his throwing. Bruce Newsom suffered a shoulder injury.

Russ Willan stressed the hospitality of the Kings Mountain hosts. "They just couldn't have been nicer," he said. They fed and housed most of his visiting players.

CARTERET DONORS, particularly Fry Roofing and Clarence Bell, helped and a representative group of the

DONNIE AYCOCK'S
Newport Red Sox have quite a surprise in store for Wilson Davis's Eastern Blues tomorrow at 8 p.m. in Swinson Park. It shapes up as a mound duel of ace right-handers, Tommy Vincent for the Sox against Brad Piner for the Blues.

The confrontation should also produce some booming home runs with Don Zagorski overdue for the Sox and big Paul Damren threatening to make a

THE BLUES would seem to have a commanding Seashore League lead of 3 and one-half games, but you'd be surprised how quickly an advantage like that can dwindle away into nothing. Manager Davis has serious pitching weaknesses and appears to place his weekend invitation tournament above the Seashore race.

A situation like that makes the Downeasters ripe for the taking. The Carteret Tides and the Blues are scheduled to compete in the Eastern invitation tournament. Thus, it would seem their scheduled Sunday game will be postponed until some later date. The Salter Path Braves will face the Coastal Greys Sunday at 2 p.m. in Swinson Park.
