Morehead City-Beaufort,

Seashore Baseball League Has Busy Weekend

roommates who kept the Braves' franchise alive? Sure they failed to perform miracles. But they came to play. And they shall return. And they showed the Seashore fans they know how to lose with a smile.

THEN THERE'S Newport Manager Donnie Aycock. Not since Craig Weber left the lineup for vital foot surgery, have the Sox been able to field their best lineup. But you don't hear Donnie complaining.

Then the former North

ARRINGTON

Carolina State great, Don Zagorski, who has played wherever Aycock needs him, but rarely in his natural position in the outfield. He also kept a close mouth with nary a plea for sympathy, although he was suffering from a fever and a severe cold.

WHAT A SWATFEST of a weekend.

Richard Collins, Robert Hill and Charley Hardesty paced the Greys to their conquest of the Sox. Collins beat out 3 singles and stole 2 bases. Robert did the exact same. Charley pitched the distance and hammered his 5th homer.

ZAGORSKI whacked his 7th and 8th home runs, a double, drew an intentional pass and nearly decapitated second-baseman Collins with Don's only failure to hit safely on a smoking line drive.

Winston Arrington paced the Tides Saturday with 2 singles and a 3-run homer in 5 trips. Chuck Lewis went 3 for 6. Barry Lawrence, Fletcher Poulk, Donald Garner, Cecil Lilly and George Gilbert all weighed in with 2 hits. George and Lilly shared in a 2-hit mound triumph for Gilbert.

ALL THIS PROVED just a warmup for yesterday's 23-hit 17-run Carteret barrage off 4 Sox hurlers.

John Turnage pitched a better ball game than the 11 hits and 5 runs might indicate. A bad-hop single by George Viereck cost him 2 questionable 9th-inning tallies. John also paced the Tides at bat with 4 straight hits, including his 4th home run, for a .412 season batting average.

Bobby Shelton and Ronnie Willis each collected 2 safe blows and Bud Goodlin went 1 for 1. And, of course, who can forget Zagorski's 9th home run, his 4th tape-measure wallop?

THE BLUES SHOWED the Braves some guilt-edged pitching by Dallas Arthur, Kenny Lewis and Brad Piner, permitting just 2 hits, a single and a home run by Louis Meador. Braxton Piner homered for the Blues.

It's great to be young and a

Blue and a Tar Heel and a mightily promising athlete with the world as his oyster for a future. That's Brad Piner, who fanned 6 yesterday.

Another youngster with a future, Jimmy Davis hurled impressive ball against the toughest team in the league. But his own wildness proved much too costly.

AND LET THE welkin ring for Gilbert, Poulk, Garner and Barry Lawrence with 3 hits. Dal Lawrence had a perfect day with 2 for 2. He's now batting an even .500. Doug Landingham and Chuck Lewis also cracked 2 hits.

George Mettrick of the Sox enjoyed his best batting performance ever against his co-executive, Turnage. The Newport clouter touched up John for a double and 2 singles in 4 trips. Viereck,
