strike, Piner started running for first base and Hill took off for second. The Beaufort catcher, instead of trying to get Hill at second, threw the ball to first to nail Piner who was already out. The first baseman then overthrew second and Hill advanced to third on the play.

Woody Hancock then grounded out second to first, driving in Hill.

The win gave the Blue Devils a record of 11 wins and two losses for the season and marked the eighth win of the year for Piner as compared to two losses.
