

On Target

(Continued from Pg. 2A)

Lefty Dallas and right-hander Brad. Scrutinizing this over-all contrast, the records will bear them out.

Donnie has some mighty fine hurling arms and plenty of pitching

Scott, Piner and Lewis,
Blues' standouts.

savvy. Putting it all together presents his problem of major proportions.

Both these rivals thrive on fiery competition and they seem sure to provide it on Sunday. They both possess haughty mountains of pride.

Newport possesses no hurler with quite the consistency and control of a John Turnage.

But the brightest ray of sunshine could very well focus on the batting duel between the Tides' Chuck Lewis and Don Zagorski of the Sox.