

#28B Lee Hawkins

Two for their teams. Bennett, hitting for Rochelle in the eighth, hit a four-ply blow, and Ellis, hitting for Costella, Virginia pitcher, in the ninth, hit one over the center field wall.

Captain Warren was walked four of his five trips to bat.

McKeithan's line drive to right home run. Bill Donahue, a Duke student, thinking it a foul ball, picked it up and threw it to the Virginia outfielder.

Bill Werber robbed two Virginians of hits. In the second, he went behind second base to scoop up a hot one and throw Byrd out at first. In the sixth he picked up a slow teaser and barely caught Weaver at first.

Hawkins and McKeithan were liberal with bases on balls. Hawkins passed six batters in three innings and McKeithan walked seven in seven innings.

Werber's home run in the fifth went over the left field wall on Hanes field and hit across the street. Kistler's homer, directly after Werber's hit in the tops of the trees lining the center field wall.
