

Morehead City's league-leading team started off the weekend with a 12-2 setback at the hands of the East Carteret but stepped back in the limelight again Sunday when they whipped the eastern team, 15-5.

Three pitchers were used in Morehead City's attempt Saturday at home to whip the East Carteret team but their work was to no avail. James Webb started on the mound but was taken out after allowing five runs in the first three innings. He was replaced by Odell Morton and Colin Campbell, neither of whom could stem the tide. Driver was the pitcher credited with the victory.

Julius Moore pitched the Morehead City team to its 15-5 victory at Marshallberg Sunday. Bill McKinney was Morehead City's catcher in both games and Price was the losing pitcher Sunday.

Beaufort turned in an 8-5 victory over Newport at Newport.

Beaufort vs Newport

A home run with the bases loaded by Benton in the fifth inning provided Beaufort with the margin of victory.

Benton and Hamilton led the winners at bat with two and three hits respectively. For Newport, Hill and Haskett were tops with two safe blows apiece.

| | |
|-------------------------|----------|
| Score by innings | R. H. E. |
| Beaufort ...000 040 031 | —8 11 4 |
| Newport ...000 050 000 | —5 8 5 |

Sharpe and Gillikin; Taylor and Kohlbecker.

Newport scored six runs in the sixth inning at Beaufort Sunday and went on to get a 10-6 victory.

Joe Hill, with three for five, and Wallace Hill, with two for four, were the leading batters for the winners. Benton got two for three for Beaufort.

| | |
|-------------------------|----------|
| Newport ...010 026 010 | —10 13 4 |
| Beaufort ...020 031 000 | —6 12 6 |

W. Hill, J. Hill (5) and Kohlbecker; Harris, Webb (6) and Gillikin, MacIntosh.

J-ville vs. Apprentice

Jacksonville walloped Apprentice, 12-1 at Jacksonville Saturday. Iannucci, with two for four, led Apprentice. Kinsmen and Donley, with two for three, led the winners.

| | | |
|------------|-------------|----------|
| Apprentice | 000 100 000 | —1 5 6 |
| J-ville | 070 010 40x | —12 12 0 |

Godwin and Iannucci; Radovitch and Kinsmen.

Frank Masso pitched the Jacksonville team to a 5-1 triumph over Apprentice at Cherry Point Sunday afternoon.

day afternoon.

Masso struck out nine and gave up only three hits as he handcuffed the losers. The Apprentice nine got its only run in the first inning. Jacksonville tied the game with a single marker in the third, and went on to win with two more in the sixth and ninth frames.

Donley led the winners' 10-hit attack with three for four.

| | | |
|------------------|-------------|---------|
| Score by innings | R. H. E. | |
| J-ville | 001 002 002 | —5 10 1 |
| Apprentice | 100 000 000 | —1 3 3 |

Masso and Kinsman; Koontz and Iannucci.

Midway vs. Havelock

In the other two games of the weekend, Midway Park shellacked Havelock 25-3 Saturday and Havelock eked out a 7-6 victory over Midway Sunday.