Monarchs Beat New Bern Five

King School's Monarchs had an easy time of it Friday night on the home court as they ran roughshod over St. Joseph's of New Bern, winning the contest 84-33.

Coach J. R. Thompson's team put a full court press into operation in the second half, and the New Bern team had difficulty in getting the ball across the center line.

The same two teams meet again tonight in New Bern.

Though only leading 25-10 at halftime the Monarchs really started hitting in the second half of the game, and most of the latter part of the game was played by the second-string Monarchs.

High scorer for the winners was Ike Williams with 20 points. Henry Dudley 18, and William Adams 14, were others to hit in double figures for the Monarchs.

For the losers Anthony Dudley was high pointmaker with 14 points.

The King School girls played an intra-squad game as the preliminary attraction.
