Representatives of all the teams in the Tidewater League met Tuesday evening with league officials in Newport to select the members of the two all-star teams that will meet Wednesday afternoon, July 7, at Beaufort ball park. Game time will be 2:30 p.m. on that day.

The game will pit the east against the west. Comprising the eastern combination will be players from Morehead City, Beaufort, Marshallberg, and Harkers Island-Straits.

The remainder of the league, Havelock, Swansboro, Newport, and Jacksonville, will make up the team representing the west.

Morehead City will be represented by catcher Harry Salter, infielders Francis Stoy and Piggie Smith, outfielder Jack Gardner, and pitcher Jim Webb.

Playing in Beaufort uniforms will be Ray Hassell, catcher; Ben Hester, infielder; Tracy Hooper, outfielder; and Richard "Banjo" Ricks, pitcher.

Marshallberg representatives selected were John Willis, catcher; Johnny Hamilton, Myron Harris, and Elvin Davis, outfielders; Billy Smith, infielder; and Pate, pitcher.

Infielders Hawkins and Dave Yeomans, outfielder D. Chadwick, and pitcher Moe Willis will be the envoys of Harkers Island-Straits.

Jack Gardner of Morehead City will be the manager.

The westerners will be equally loaded with talent. Havelock will send Fred Taylor, pitcher; Kohlbecker, catcher; Hodges and Joe Pyzgodzinski, infielders; and Fred Lockett, outfielder.
