Durham Ning Before Pirc

Skipper Keeps invaders' 1tt Hits Scattered In Legion Stadium Tilt

The Wilmington Pirates evened the score with Dubs Sandwich team from Durham yesterday as they tool that fast semi-pro team into camp' to the tune of 13 to 3 at the Legiory

The locals clubbed the offerings of Pope for a total of 17 safe blows five of which were for extra bases, big John Sellers getting three twobaggers during the game. Skippery kept the 10 safe hits of the Sandwichers scattered except in the first and third stanzas when they bunch ed their hits for runs. Other than those innings the Pirate hurler was never in danger.

The Durham outfit flew apart in the first inning afield as the locals forged ahead on an error of S. Mc-Keithan grounder to third, a walk to Alford, and error on the pitcher of Allen's grounder and H. McKeithan's first hit off the locals, Hines hit scoring S. McKeithan, with all and scoring on Carter's lusty wollop good for two bases. After that the visitors never threatened to even the core and Skipper took it easy from there on,

The game was held up for 45 min-utes on account of rain, but a fair crowd of fans were on hand to cheer crowd of fans were on hand to cheer the locals to victory.

For the visitors, Overman showed up well at short, executing a neat putout on H. McKeithan who was caught off the second sack. He also hit for three bases the longest blow of the game. S. McKeithan and allen played their usual good detensive game also contributing to the run making.

The outstanding hitter for Wil-

ALPHA KAPPA PSI SATURDAY NIGHT

Strong Local Organiation Merged Into Foremost Commercial Fraternity in Existence

ARE 22 CHARTER MEMBERS

National President is Leader in Installation Ceremonies Held on Campus; Banquet Held at Washington Duke Concludes Impressive Ritual; Prominent Economists Present

With the installation of Beta Eta chapter at Duke university Saturday evening, the fifty-second chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, the oldest and largest commercial fraternity in the world, was established. The group receiving the charter formerly existed on the campus as Psi Kappa Alpha, a local commercial organization organized three years ago by a group of outstanding students in the business administration department.

It was the plan from the time of organization to petition Apha Kappa Psi, recognized as the most powerful commercial fraternity. The interest and cooperation of Professors J. H. Shields and C. E. London, faculty members of Alpha Kappa Psi, contributed in a large way to the realization of that goal.

The fraternity, which numbers among its members a large number of distinguished commercial leaders, both in increase were shelling James and deducation, has as its purposes to foster scientific research in the fields whited Jr., kept ten hits of commerce, accounts, and finance; tod as the Colts racked upeducate the public along the lines of kers on six base hits. higher ideals in business, and to promote the development of commercial education in American universities. It now has a membership of about 7,000. The 22 charter members were conducted through the very impressive rituals by O. A. Kirkman, grand president of University of Virginia and district counsellor of the southern district, Dr. J. H. Shields, of Duke university, Dr. C. E. Landon, of Duke university, Marion Follin, president of Alpha Tau chapter at the University of North Carolina, and two other Alpha Tau members.

After the initiation a formal banquet was held in the main dining room of the was held in the main during foom of the Washington Duke hotel. The following week-end of fun.
