

For Newport, the following will play: Melvin Aycock, pitcher; Joe Lashley, catcher; Joe Hill, infielder; and Steve Olkowski and Neal Garner, outfielders.

Pitcher Arthur (Pappy) Diem, catcher Styron; infielders Bill Holt and Mike Konsir, and outfielder Charlie Odum will be Swansboro's contribution to the all-star lineup.

The westerners' team will be rounded out by Floyd Williams, pitcher; Bill McCulloch, infielder; and Ralph Byrd and Barton, outfielders, all of Jacksonville.

Manager of the west team will be Joe Hill of Newport.

Umpires for the game will be T/Sgt. Mitchell, of Cherry Point, behind home plate; Al Arnold, New Bern, at first base; and Grant Privette, Swansboro, at third base. Herman Kirby of Newport was selected as alternate.

Official scorers will be Dick Lockey of Newport and Dot Harrell of Morehead City.

Ralph Eudy of Beaufort, secretary of the league, is in charge of ticket sales. Harry Salter of Morehead City will direct publicity.

There will be a parade in Morehead City and Beaufort the day of the game, and pre-game ceremonies are being prepared.

The winners of the game will receive gold baseballs, while the losers will receive silver ones. These are being presented by Brodie Hood, head of Hood Sporting Goods, Burlington.

The gate will be split nine ways. The eight teams will each get a share and the rest will go to the league.
