

Tides Fall 16-4 Sunday To UNC-W

By TOM DOYLE

AN ESTIMATED 175 people came out to Swinson Park Sunday to watch the Carteret Tides lose 16-4 to the Seahawks of UNC-Wilmington.

The Seahawks scored 16 runs on 19 hits and made one error. The Tides scored 4 times, twice in the fourth and twice in the sixth, got 10 hits, and made 4 errors. It was a good day for home run hitters, as 5 were put out by the Tides and 3 by UNC.

LEADING HITTERS for the Tides were Chuck Lewis, who was 3 of 4, and George Gilbert, who was 2 for 3. UNC had men who were 5 of 5 and four of six.

Cottle took the mound victory for UNC-W, allowing 3 hits and fanning 5. The loser was George Viereck.

In an earlier meeting, the Tides lost 9-0 at Wilmington.
