

Morehead Drops Two To Marshallberg: 3-1, 8-1.

Morehead City dropped both ends of its twin bill with Marshallberg over the weekend, losing Saturday's game, 3-1, in 10 innings at Wade Brothers Park, and dropping an 8-1 verdict Sunday at Marshallberg.

In Sunday's tussle, Norman Wade started for Morehead City, and he had to be replaced by Archie Piner and Jim Webb. Wade got stuck with the decision. Harry Salter gave the signals behind the plate.

Myron (Ace) Harris started for Marshallberg and went all the way for the win. Lester Babbitt did the catching.

Saturday's game was a brilliant pitchers' duel between righty Herb Pate of Marshallberg and southpaw Jim Webb of Morehead. The battle featured good, and sometimes sensational, defensive play to back up both hurlers.

Marshallberg drew first blood with a run in the first inning.

Rudy Lucas walked and was forced at second by Elvin Davis. Hits by Myron Harris and Moore brought in Lucas, but Harris was cut down at the plate when he attempted to score all the way from first on Moore's single.

The game went a solutely scoreless until the last half of the ninth. Pate, in these eight innings, allowed but two hits and, until the first man up in the ninth, retired 12 Morehead City batters in order, sans runs, hits, walks, or errors.

In fact, Webb all but bettered this record. In the first nine innings he allowed, besides the one
