

Salter Path Downs Beaufort 6-5

Hassell Scores on Henry Frost's Single in Eighth

An eighth inning single down the left field line by Henry Frost, scoring Ray Hassell from third, gave Salter Path a 6-5 victory over Beaufort, and gave them a tie for second place in the Carteret County baseball league.

Beaufort and Salter Path now have 3-2 records. Atlantic is in first via a split with Newport.

Harkers Island Splits Sunday Doubleheader

Takes First Game 5-4, Lose to Morehead City 7-2 for Third Spot Tie

Morehead City and Harkers Island are tied for third place in the County Baseball League with 3-3 records. The teams split in Sunday's doubleheader at Morehead City.

Scoring in the top of the seventh, Harkers Island nudged Morehead 5-4 in the first game. Putting on a late rally in the fifth and sixth innings of the second game, Morehead took the nightcap 7-2.

Harkers Island's first game win was featured by three doubles, Wilson Davis, "Snoball" Gaskill, and Jerry Guthrie each got one. For Morehead, Bobby Willis doubled.

Davis Hurts Three-Hitter

Wilson Davis, on the mound, twirled three-hit ball, getting in trouble only once, and that in the third inning when he gave up three runs.

The visitors scored one in the first, three in the second, and broke a 4-4 tie in the top of the seventh with one run. Morehead, under new management, Bob Butler, took over the reins from Bobby Bass, scored once in the first and sent three scampering across the plate in the third.

Winning pitcher was Davis, loser was Brad McIntosh, who relieved Bobby Bass in the third. Harkers Island clubbed both Bass and

See BASEBALL, Page 8

The second game, called at the end of four innings because of the 6 p.m. curfew, was ruled no contest. Beaufort was ahead 8-5 at the time.

In the first game the score was tied 5-5 at the end of seven innings, sending the game into extra innings. In the top half of the eighth, Walt Thomas, hurling for Salter Path, sent Beaufort down one, two, three.

Hassell Singles

Hassell led off the bottom half of the eighth with a single, moved to second on Alvin Willis' single while Lloyd Frost was fanned by Cal Hodges.

Thomas sent Hassell scampering to third with a single and the bases were jammed. Jerry Pittman became a strikeout victim, but Henry Frost hit a towering drive down the left field line that scored the winning run.

Winning hurler was Thomas, losing pitcher was Hodges. Hodges was lifted in the first for Owens, but resumed the hill in the second. Hodges, extremely wild, gave Salter Path two runs in the first on three walks and one hit batsman. He was lifted in favor of Owens who got Thomas on three strikes to end the inning. Owens gave Salter Path one run on a walk and a hit batsman.

Beaufort Bounces Back

Beaufort bounced back with two runs on singles by Otis Jefferson and Carl Sadler, a fielder's choice, and an error. They tied it up in the second, 3-3, on two walks and Jim Parkins' single.

Beaufort took the lead in the third, scoring two runs, featured by Bill Gillikin's double, and Bob Schwark's single.

A double by Hassell drove in Charley Callahan for Salter Path's fourth-inning run, and the home team tied it up 5-5 in the fifth on singles by Thomas and Henry Frost, sandwiched around two free tickets.

Parkins Ends Threat

In the bottom of the seventh Salter Path threatened when a single, a fielder's choice, and a walk loaded the sacks. Hodges was again lifted for Owens.

Harold Deibert, hitting for Gehrman Guthrie, hit sharply to the left through short, on which Parkins made a sensational stop, tossing to Powell at second for the force on Harold Bass.

This play sent the game into the extra inning with Salter Path coming through in major league fashion.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Salter Path 300 110 01-6 9 2
Beaufort 212 000 00-5 8 4

Baseball

(Continued from Page 3)

McIntosh for 10 hits, paced by Gaskill with four for four.

Bobby Willis, one for two, led Morehead.

Morehead Takes Second Game

In the second game Morehead came on in the fifth and sixth innings to grab a 7-2 decision.

Harkers Island scored once in the second to take the lead, but Morehead City sent two runs across in the third and fifth innings to take the lead. Three runs in the sixth provided the victory margin.

Harkers Island scored its final tally in the top of the sixth. The visitors gleaned seven hits off Morehead hurlers Bass and Charles Hall. Winning pitcher was Hall. Losing pitcher was N. Hill, who was touched for six hits.

Crawford Pigott, two for three, paced the losers attack with Jerry Conner, two for three, pacing Morehead.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
H. Island 130 000 1-5 10 1
Morhd. City 103 000 0-4 3 4
Morhd City 002 023 x-7 6 2
H. Island 010 001 0-2 7 5

HARKERS ISLAND

Takes First Game 5-4, Lose to Morehead City 7-2 for Third Spot Tie

Morehead City and Harkers Island are tied for third place in the County Baseball League with 3-3 records. The teams split in Sunday's doubleheader at Morehead City.

Scoring in the top of the seventh, Harkers Island nudged Morehead 5-4 in the first game. Putting on a late rally in the fifth and sixth innings of the second game, Morehead took the nightcap 7-2.

Harkers Island's first game win was featured by three doubles, Wilson Davis, "Snoball" Gaskill, and Jerry Guthrie each got one. For Morehead, Bobby Willis doubled.

Davis Hurts Three-Hitter

Wilson Davis, on the mound, twirled three-hit ball, getting in trouble only once, and that in the third inning when he gave up three runs.

The visitors scored one in the first, three in the second, and broke a 4-4 tie in the top of the seventh with one run. Morehead, under new management, Bob Butler, took over the reins from Bobby Bass, scored once in the first and sent three scampering across the plate in the third.

Winning pitcher was Davis, loser was Brad McIntosh, who relieved Bobby Bass in the third. Harkers Island clubbed both Bass and first class mullet blow. Storm clouds and sunset—a great sight! The motor was shut off and every rag of canvas was hoisted

See BASEBALL, Page 8

Atlantic Leaps To First Place In County Loop

Atlantic stands alone in first place in the County Baseball League after splitting a twin bill with Newport Sunday at Newport. Newport took the first game 7-4 and Atlantic copped the nightcap 5-3.

In the first game Jerry Garner was credited with the win. He gave up eight hits, one a home run to Buddy Willis.

Newport clouted loser Don Willis for seven hits. Three of these were doubles to Newkirk, Mason and Jerry Garner.

Atlantic took the second game, combining seven hits and five Newport errors, featured by Buddy Willis' double to place out the 5-3 win.

Winning pitcher was Julian Willis, who was tagged for six hits. Milton Gould was charged with the loss.

Atlantic now has a 4-2 record. Newport's record is 1-5.

three.

Hassell Singles

Hassell led off the bottom half of the eighth with a single, moved to second on Alvin Willis' single, while Lloyd Frost was fanned by Cal Hodges.

Thomas sent Hassell scampering to third with a single and the bases were jammed. Jerry Pittman became a strikeout victim, but Henry Frost hit a towering drive down the left field line that scored the winning run.

Winning hurler was Thomas, losing pitcher was Hodges. Hodges was lifted in the first for Owens, but resumed the hill in the second.

Hodges, extremely wild, gave Salter Path two runs in the first on three walks and one hit batsman. He was lifted in favor of Owens who got Thomas on three strikes to end the inning. Owens gave Salter Path one run on a walk and a hit batsman.

Beaufort Bounces Back

Beaufort bounced back with two runs on singles by Otis Jefferson and Carl Sadler, a fielder's choice, and an error. They tied it up in the second, 3-3, on two walks and Jim Parkins' single.

Beaufort took the lead in the third, scoring two runs, featured by Bill Gillikin's double, and Bob Schwark's single.

A double by Hassell drove in Charley Callahan for Salter Path's fourth-inning run, and the home team tied it up 5-5 in the fifth on singles by Thomas and Henry Frost, sandwiched around two free tickets.

Parkins Ends Threat

In the bottom of the seventh Salter Path threatened when a single, a fielder's choice, and a walk loaded the sacks. Hodges was again lifted for Owens.

Harold Deibert, hitting for Gehrman Guthrie, hit sharply to the left through short, on which Parkins made a sensational stop, tossing to Powell at second for the force on Harold Bass.

This play sent the game into the extra inning with Salter Path coming through in major league fashion.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Salter Path 300 110 01-6 9 2
Beaufort 212 000 00-5 8 4