Fanning 15 on sizzling side fastballs and sharp-breaking cut righthander Tom Woody outdu southpaw Bob McNeal in a stei mound performance Sunday a noon as Morehead City registra a 4-2 win over Newport.

The victory for Manager Tuttle's nine evened the two g weekend series with Newport kept Morehead apace with F Flying Beaufort for top rung in Carteret County semi-pro ladder.

It was a case of Morehead t. ing singletons in the fourth fifth innings while Woody blazing his way through st scoreless innings of pitching. B shot Haskett finally broke the in the eighth with a two-run To league single over short that up the ball game. But Morel countered with two more in t half of the same inning to sew the contest.

Woody, in dishing out e goose-eggs, walked four and i up but four hits, two by Wa Benton, who slammed a double a triple in four tries. Chunky Neal, former Midway Park hit had but three strikeouts, but lowed only five scattered bin his medium-fast tosses baff Morehead hitters, who consiste grounded to the infield.

Benton Bangs Double

The only Morehead swinger gave the stocky lefthander a pitcher any trouble was clea man Tom Benton, who banged a long double and a bunt sin in four times at bat.

So baffling did both chuef prove, that each team had coll ed only one hit before Moreh finally scored in the fourth. S ny Ellis' liner over second che in Benton, who had doubled the right-centerfield corner.

The following inning, after were out, Haywood Kelly unlea a wallop to the extreme left-ee corner that drove in Dennie C kins, who received a life on an ror by Haskett.

Meanwhile Woody, working grand fashion, was blanking N port on but two hits, both by F ton. The lefthanded swinger d ed a double on a line over tl in the third, and came back in sixth with another line drive to same spot, the ball bouncing the leftfield wall for a triple.

Haskett Hacks Single

Then it happened. Woody w: ed Manager Pappy Diem and H ry Sermons. Diem was forced at third by Woody's fine play. McNeal's hopper, but Bill E threw wildly past first to adva both runners. Woody then curv his way past Benton for the seer out, but, with runners on sec and third, Haskett caught a pi of a Woody fastball and dump his Texas leaguer that plated t lying runs.

The score didn't stay that w for long, however, as Morehead turned with two more markers their half of the eighth to gi Woody the deserving win. Gaski started the rally by reaching fi when Haskett let his roller r right through his legs. Gaski then stole the only base of t day, and, after Kelly walked, je
