

Sermons Loses 2-1 Duel to Beaufort In League Action

Newport hurler Henry Sermons yielded only one hit Sunday to Beaufort in a county loop tilt, but dropped the decision 2-1.

Cal Hodges for Beaufort was equally as effective giving up four scattered bingles over his seven-inning stint. He collected the only safety off Sermons.

Newport dumped Beaufort in the nightcap 5-2 behind Nick Culpepper's three for four stint at the plate.

Jim Parkins led Beaufort with two for three. Clyde Owens opposed Milton Gould at the start, but Gould gave way to Morton in the second. Owens fanned 15 batters and gave up seven hits.

Newport hurlers were tagged for six bingles with Parkins grabbing a pair.

Beaufort's league record is 7-6, which puts them in a three-way tie for second place. Newport still holds onto last place with a 4-10 record.
