

Hawks Defeat Devils Again, 3-1

Leo Winberry Pitches Three-Hitter Tuesday

The Hawks did it again, this time 3-1. Leo Winberry pitched a three-hit ball game Tuesday at Newport to give his team its second win of the season, both over Smyrna.

Winberry went all the way, striking out six and walking only one. The losing pitcher was Danny Gillikin, who struck out six, walked four and allowed six hits.

Newport's Dwayne Oglesby reached second base in the first inning on an error by the pitcher. Gillikin fielded a grounder, but overthrew first. Sammy Lilly singled Oglesby to third base, and Tony Minatel slammed a double to bring him home.

The Hawks were unable to score again until the fifth inning, although they loaded the bases in the third inning.

Winberry led off in the fifth with a walk. Oglesby singled and Billy Livingston hit a ground-rule double to score the pitcher. With two men on, the Blue Devils decided not to give Sammy Lilly a crack at the ball, giving him an intentional walk to load the bases. But the Smyrna pitcher also walked the next man up, unintentionally, scoring Dwayne Oglesby.

But the Devils also scored in the fifth inning to prevent a skunk. Kenny Lewis got to first on an error by the Newport shortstop. Two wild pitches by Winberry put him on third base, and Smyrna's Norris Nelson singled him in.

The Hawks won the game, their second in four starts, despite four errors. The Blue Devils committed only two errors. Newport has lost games to Swansboro and Pamlico so far this season. The team will get a second chance at the Swansboro Pirates this afternoon at 4.

Coach Eugene Edwards said after Tuesday's win over Smyrna that his boys "did a very exceptional job." The victories over Smyrna in baseball and losses in basketball completely reversed last year's showing, he pointed out.

Rams Skunk Morehead City 7-0 Tuesday

● Burchette Pitches Two-Hitter

● Clark Totherow Leads Rams at Bat

Havelock claimed an easy, 7-0 win at Morehead City Tuesday. Bill Burchette, an outstanding athlete for the Rams in all three major sports, pitched the two-hitter.

He struck out fourteen Eagles and walked only one to take the victory. Eddie Smith was the losing pitcher, although relieved in the top half of the fourth inning by Eddie Morton, who was in turn relieved by Ray Salter.

Together, the Morehead City pitching staff struck out four Havelock batters, walked four and gave up seven hits.

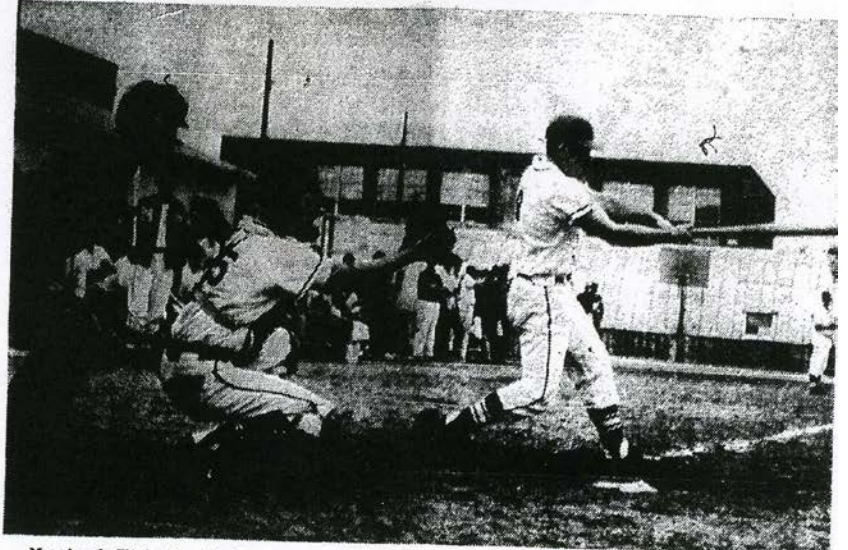

The contest was scoreless for the first two innings, but the Rams broke the ice with two runs in the third. Clark Totherow singled, went to third base on an error by the pitcher and stole home. J. R. Godwin managed to reach first on a fielder's choice, stole second and was singled in by Bill Burchette.

Havelock scored again in the fourth, two more runs. Joe Laufer walked to first, then moved to second on a sacrifice bunt. Brick Scoggins walked, and Totherow doubled both men home.

The Rams scored three more in the sixth inning. Dickie Timmons got on base with a single, and Totherow, with a single and double already to his credit, slammed a homer over Talbert's Temple. Tommy Dees singled two batsmen later, then scored on a double by Ron Padrick.

The only threats Morehead City could offer were men on second base in the third and fifth innings. Howard Barnum, Eagles' left fielder, picked up his team's only two hits, both singles.

Three Strikes, You're Out

Morehead City's Donald Yeager fans the air in an attempt to hit a Burchette pitch. He was one of fourteen Eagles to go down swinging in Tuesday's 7-0 loss to the Havelock Rams. Behind the plate is catcher J. R. Godwin.
