THE LEAD-OFF BATTER for the Blues, in the top of the sixth, was pitcher Richard Arthur. He singled. Moments later, he attempted a steal. The umpire called him safe, which caused three or four Salter Path players and manager Otis Pittman to start fussing. One player got thrown out and the rest just followed him out the gate. The umpire called the game; the Blues won 7 to 3.

The Western Red Sox did in the Carteret Tides in the first game of Sunday's doubleheader 7-5 as the Tides played with exactly nine players, including fiery manager Grady Willis, who had his ankle stepped on while playing first base.

THE TIDES WERE down 4-1 at the end of three, but, in the fourth, scored four more runs to take a 5-4 lead. The Red Sox rallied for three in the fifth to take a 7-5 lead which they kept.

The Tides dominated the Red Sox in game No. 2, when some other players showed up. They came away with a 13-7 victory.
