Pigott led off with a single, then Tony Hancock sacrificed him to second. Catcher Manley Gaskill then popped one out in the trees in right field to end the game, 4-2.

THE SECOND game started out like a run-away for the Tides, who got four runs in the first, most of them on Chuck Lewis's three-run homer.

But in the fourth frame, Paul Damren singled, and the next two batters walked. Damren scored on a sacrifice fly by Dale Lewis. The next batter reached base on an error. With two outs, the bases loaded, down by three runs, Randy Grady of the Blues knocked a grand slam homer to give the Blues a 5-4 lead.

THAT WAS IT for the Blues, though. The Tides got one more in the sixth. Chuck Lewis scored on third baseman Cecil Lilley's triple. And in the top of the seventh, with one man on, John Turnage blasted one into the pine branches in left field to give the Tides a 2-5 lead, which they held.

Flaying with only nine mean the Western Red Sox defeated the Coastal Greys Saturday afternoon 6-4. Ronnie Willis homered for the Red Sox and Alex Fox countered for the Greys. The Red Sox came up with three runs in the top of the ninth, after trailing by one, 4-3. Final score: Red Sox 6, Greys 4.

In Sunday's other game, the Salter Path Braves defeated the Coastal Greys 22-4.
