

Tournament Resumes; Blues, Tides to Meet

By TOM DOYLE

THE SEASHORE BASEBALL League playoff will resume this weekend as the Eastern Blues play the Carteret Tides at 2 p.m. Sunday at Smyrna, and the Western Red Sox travel to Salter Path for a 2 p.m. game with the Braves.

The Blues-Tides match-up will be well balanced as both teams possess power hitting, good speed and excellent pitching. Always, when they meet, something exciting is bound to happen.

THIS DOUBLE-elimination tournament will see one team drop out this weekend as both of last week's losers will pair up for action when the Braves play the Red Sox at Salter Path.

The winner of this week's Tides-Blues game will take a week's rest to prepare for the league championship match against the winner of the game between the loser of the Tides-Blues contest and the winner of the Braves-Red Sox game.
