By BRYAN SALTER

BEAUFORT — Bob (Wildman) McIntosh went wild Sunday, July 11, as he helped the Nets romp to a 17-2 victory over the Bays. McIntosh, who got the win, stifled Bays' hitters, fanning 17 and allowing only 2 hits.

Danny Brooks led the Nets attack with 5 hits, including a home run and a double. Wayne Willis had 3 hits, 2 of which were doubles, and the Wildman had 2 hits plus his pitching performance. All 9 Net players hit safely. The 2 Bays hits were collected by Richard LeMay and Keith Mason, one each. Mason was also the losing pitcher.

Pirates Defeat A's 13-6

ATLANTIC — Despite intra-community rivalry, fans at the Pirates and A's game, in a Bicentennial spirit, pulled for both sides, cheering and applauding whenever a player made a good play or got a hit, regardless of his team affiliation.

The Pirates, behind Bob Johnson's pitching, won the game 13-6. The victory was not only Johnson's first win of the season, but the first game he's pitched in Eastern League play. While he only struck out 2, while walking 4, he confined the A's hitting to the infield.

The mound loss was charged to Rocky Morris, who struck out 9 and walked 2. Morris started the game for the A's, was relieved by Perry Styron for the seventh inning, but was moved back from another position to pitch, finishing the game. Morris gave up 11 of the Pirates runs; Styron, 2.

The Pirates scored first when Johnson crossed homeplate on a fielder's choice by teammate Dan Watt. Leading hitters for the Pirates were David Simpson, Danny Watt and Bob Johnson. For the A's, Jack Allen and Perry Styron led the offense.
