

Baseball Players To Take Part In Tournament

Several Carteret players will participate in a state-wide semi-pro baseball tournament beginning at Roxboro Wednesday, where the Havelock team is one of the two favorites.

Carteret men on the Havelock team are Tommy Salter, Atlantic, who has a five game, no loss pitching record; Jimmy Parker, Morehead City, outfielder, with a .344 at bat; James Holland, Beaufort, outfielder, .320; and Fred Bartholomew, Smyrna, first base and outfield, .327.

Havelock has a 9-0 record in the East Coast league and a 14-0 overall record for the season. Havelock will meet the other tournament favorite, Concord, at Roxboro on the night of Saturday, July 14. The winner of the tournament will go to the national finals in Wichita, Kan., the second week in August.

A total of 16 teams in the state have been invited to the tournament, which will be played on a double-elimination basis. Havelock's latest win was over Southport, 9-5, Sunday at Havelock.

Sands was the winning pitcher, and Russ was on the mound for Southport. Havelock had nine runs, 15 hits and eight errors to Southport's four runs, three hits, and one error.
