

First State Title Came in 1955

Beaufort first felt the thrill of wearing a state basketball crown in 1955.

Members of that squad were Ed Willis, son of Mrs. Ola Belle Willis; Monk Pittman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Pittman; Ray Gillikin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Gillikin.

Dick Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore; George Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Martin; Herb Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Mason.

Terry Nance, son of Mrs. Alvah Nance; Jimmy Potter, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Potter; Gehrmann, Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Holland.

Jimmy-Owens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Owens; Henry Safrit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Safrit Jr., Jimmy Davis, son of Mrs. L. C. Davis, and Bruce Edwards, team manager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Edwards.

Worked Out on College Floor

Even while in High Point for the state tournament the Beaufort Seadogs did not get out of their practice sessions. The team worked out Tuesday and Thursday afternoons on the High Point college floor.

Sophomore Chuck Lewis was the season's highest scorer among the players on the Seadog second unit. He scored a total of 98 points.
