

Bill Burchette Pitches Havelock To 6-0 Win over Seadogs Friday

Tournament Winners Get Trophies Thursday

Mrs. George Broadstreet, second place winner in the Morehead City little league benefit bowling tournament, accepts a trophy from T. C. Hyman Jr., vice-president of the league, during ceremonies at Mariner Lanes Thursday.

The tournament, sponsored by the lanes, netted $144.50 for the league's lighting fund. Winners in the men's division of the tournament were Carl Chadwick, first; Jimmy Range, second; and Eddie Barselow, third.

Mrs. Colette Binkley won first place in the women's division. Mrs. Broadstreet was second, and Mrs. Ronnie Pate, third. Only a few of the winners were present for the awards presentation.

Eagles Bow to Camp Lejeune 3-1 Friday

Morehead City high school lost a 3-1 decision to Camp Lejeune Friday on the Eagles' field.

Donald Yeager was credited with the loss his second so far this season. He struck out six, hit two and gave up four walks.

The Eagles got three hits, all singles, and scored their only run in the first inning. Mike McBride walked, went to second base on a single by Reid Kennedy and scored on a wild throw to the Lejeune third baseman.

Camp Lejeune scored one run in the first and two more in the top half of the seventh. The Eagles had two men on in the bottom of the seventh, with only one out, but were unable to score. Catcher Eddie Smith hit into a double play to end Morehead City's hopes.

Hawks Lose To Pamlico

Newport downed Smyrna Thursday, but bowed 4-1 to a visiting Pamlico team Friday.

Lupton went all the way for Pamlico. Tony Minatel, who also went the distance, was the losing pitcher.

Pamlico scored two runs in the fourth and another two in the seventh inning on a home run by Brinson. Norman Dunn turned in Newport's only hit of the afternoon, a triple in the fifth. He scored a few moments later on a sacrifice fly by Freddy Bohmul-Havelock's Bill Burchette struck out 16 Seadogs Friday to blank Beaufort 6-0, while accounting for two of his team's runs. The game was played at Beaufort.

Clem Woodard was credited with the loss, after being relieved in the fifth inning by Mickey Bertram. Together they retired five Havelock batsmen.

Tommy Dees, Rams' lead-off man, singled in the first inning, and advanced to second when a pitch got by the catcher. He went on to third on a single by Burchette, and scored on another passed ball.

The Rams scored again in the second. Dickie Timmons walked, stole second and came in on a single by J. R. Godwin. Phil Buzzelli scored for Havelock in the third after reaching first on an error by Beaufort's second baseman. Buzzelli made it to second, then to third on two more passed balls, and scored on a sacrifice fly.

Havelock picked up two more runs in the fifth inning on a homer by Buzzelli over the left-field fence. The home run came with Burchette on base. Burchette scored Havelock's final tally. He walked to first, then covered the bases on a series of errors.

The Seadogs had men on third base twice during the game, but couldn't bring them home.
