

Davis Pitches Two Wins to Down Mill Creekers

Behind the razzle-dazzle twirling of novice pitcher Wilson (Bill) Davis, Harkers Island walloped Mill Creek for two straight over the weekend, Harkers Island taking a 12-inning thriller 6-5 Sunday and making a 7-5 win on 5 hits Saturday. Up to Saturday Mill Creek was leading the Saltwater league.

Winning pitcher Bill Davis allowed 8 hits, walked 1, and struck out 10. Walt Thomas, on the mound for Mill Creek gave up 5 hits, 4 walks, and struck out 17.

Odell Morton, ex-Tobacco State leaguer, led Mill Creek's hits with 3 for 4 trips to bat. One was a 315-foot double against the right center field wall. Twirler Davis led Harkers Island with 2 for 4.

On Sunday in the last of the 12th

Currier County Results

Saturday

Beaufort 10, Morehead City 8
Marshallberg 4, Newport 8

Sunday

Morehead City 17, Beaufort 10
Newport 13, Marshallberg 3

with two out, Cranston Moore singled and stole second before Clem Gaskill delivered his game-breaking clout, a long drive to deep left center.

Davis gave up 12 hits and struck out 11. Lloyd Culpepper, the losing pitcher, allowed 10 hits and struck out 10. With the exception of Culpepper, all Mill Creek players collected at least one hit. For Harkers Island Moore, Gaskill and Blanchard Lupton hit safely twice each.

Saturday's game was played at Newport and Sunday's at Straits.

Ivy Noren, rookie outfielder with the Washington Senators, led American League gardeners in assists last season with 20, one more than Dave Philley of the White Sox.

Frost Sparks Salter Path Win

Henry Frost with a three-bagger in the third inning sparked Salter Path's attack Sunday afternoon at Beaufort when Salter Path took its sixth straight win 9-4.

Harold Deibert, the winning pitcher, struck out 16, gave up 6 hits and one walk. Earl Willis, losing pitcher, struck out 14 and walked 9.

Beaufort got six hits, Earl Willis 2 for 3, O. F. Mundy 2 for 3, Hubert Springle 1, and Frank Garner 1. In addition to Frost, Salter Path's hitters were Deibert, Mitchell Gurge, and George Lewis with 1 each.

Salter Path scored five runs in the third, one in the 6th and three in the seventh.

In a previous game with Beaufort Salter Path won 6-4. Salter Path will play Mill Creek at Newport at 2:30 Sunday afternoon.

L
G

1
11
16
21
27
31
34
37
41
44
48
51
55
59
62
66
69
73
76
80
83
87
90
94
97
100