

Eaglettes Earn 51-43 Win Over Beaufort Girls

The Morehead City Eaglettes overcame a five-point deficit in the last quarter to win a 51-43 verdict over the Beaufort sextet. It was a nip and tuck battle until the final minutes of play when the winners began to pull away.

The Eaglettes took an early lead and held a two-basket edge, 15-11, after the first quarter of play. A sharp rally by the Beaufort lassies netted them six quick points and a 17-17 tie after four minutes of playing time had elapsed in the second quarter.

The Beaufort rally lost some of its steam after the score was tied and the Eaglettes moved back in front to lead by a 23-19 score at the half.

Linda Salter, Pat Lupton, and Nancy Mason combined forces to score 15 points in the third quarter for Beaufort. The Eaglettes managed to score only 10 points and fell behind by a 33-33 count.

In the last quarter the Eaglettes controlled the ball most of the time. They went into the lead with six minutes left in the game and were going strong at the final buzzer.

Anna Faye Willis was the high scorer for the night. The Morehead City forward hit for 28 points. Jenny Lou Smithwick scored 18 points and Faye Jones scored five.

Salter scored 17 points to cop high scoring honors for Beaufort. Mason scored 16 points and Lupton hit for 10 points. Substitute forward Lynda Chadwick failed to break into the scoring column.

Beaufort guards were Diane Garner, Sheila Willis, Ann Davis, and Judie Moore.

The Morehead City guards were Jessie White, Sally Morris, Frances Gaskins and Patsy Robinson.

Pamlico County Teams Win Two from Smyrna

By RACHEL WILLIS

The Smyrna Blue Devils dropped both ends of a doubleheader to Pamlico Central at Bayboro Tuesday night. The Pamlico lassies won their 25th straight game in the opener by a score of 41-28. The Pamlico quintet took a 19-22 decision in the second game.
