County League Games Sunday

Salter Path journeys to Atlantic Sunday for the third week's play in the County League, with the Atlantic All-Stars still undefeated.

In other contests Sunday Beaufort travels to Smyrna to play against the runner-up Smyrna-Harkers Island nine, and Newport invades Morehead City.

Manager Tye Frost will throw Bobby Martin and Smith in the two games against the Atlantic sluggers Sunday afternoon.

Morris to Pitch

From reports down Atlantic way, Gary Morris will hurl one of the games, and the other hurler will be a new one for Atlantic since it is expected that both Don Willis, who has a 2-0 record for the season, and the slugging Jack Rose, will both be out of the Atlantic lineup.

Beaufort Manager Icky Peterson stated that his hurlers on Sunday at Smyrna will be selected from among Calvin Hodges, Monk Pittman and Herb Mason, while Manager Wilson Davis will counter with himself and Don Coates.

Morehead Hurlers

Playing at Wade Brothers ball field, Manager Bob Eutler of the Morehead City team is expected to throw Mel Adcock and Chuck Hall against the Newport team managed by Grady Willis.

Newport's hurlers will undoubtedly be Earl Morton and probably one of the Culpepper boys, either Tommy or Nick.

At this stage of the season the leading sluggers in the league include Purcell Jones of Salter Path, Mel Adcock of Morehead City, Henry O'Briant of the Agassiz, John Hamilton and Jack Rose of Atlantic, Crawford Pigott of Smyrna-HI, and Bill Gillikin and Monk Pittman of Beaufort.
