

Two Teams Deadlocked

Morehead City Drops Out of County League

Salter Path and Smyrna-Harkers Island, tied for second place in the County Baseball League, continued their deadlock as Salter Path swept a pair from Morehead City by scores of 19-4 and 15-3, with Smyrna-HI sweeping their twinbill by scores of 8-5 and 8-4.

The double loss by Morehead City prompted the new manager of the team, Grady Willis, to announce that the Morehead City team was folding up for the season. There will be no more games played by a Morehead City team this year, said Willis.

"There are only a few fellows with the club that are interested in playing ball, and with only a couple of fellows we can't give the ball-fans of Morehead City a good team," Willis said.

Averages Fattened

All of the Salter Path players fattened their batting averages against the slants of Bradley McIntosh, T. C. Bass, Grady Willis and Chuck Hall in the first game and against Bobby Martin, Chuck Hall and Jimmy Webb in the nightcap.

Jerry Pittman was the winning hurler in the first contest with Craig Smith gaining the victory in the second game.

At Smyrna diamond the Smyrna-HI team took the opener over the Agassiz 8-5 with Don Coates going the distance for the win as he allowed nine hits, walked seven and struck out 11.

Ed Shields was the loser for the Agassiz in the opener as he allowed 10 hits, walked one and struck out one.

Smyrna-HI started the scoring in the first with a single tally, with the Agassiz coming back with a pair in the top of the second. The Smyrna-HI took the lead in the last of the second as they tallied three

Rest of Morehead Games Forfeited

The remaining contests of the Morehead City team of the Carteret County Baseball League have been forfeited, according to President Bill (Bull) Durham.

The forfeitures will mean two more victories to Newport, the Agassiz, Smyrna-Harkers Island and Atlantic.

A revised schedule for the league will be published in Friday's paper.

runs and they were never headed from that point on.

In the second contest Jamie Lewis started and Wilson Davis relieved for Smyrna-HI for an 8-4 victory, with the loss going to Lloyd Culpepper.

Lewis and Davis allowed five hits, struck out five and walked two. Culpepper allowed seven hits, struck out four and walked two.

After taking an early 3-0 lead the Smyrna-HI team saw the Agassiz take over in the top of the fourth when they scored four times. In the last of the fifth Smyrna-HI tallied three times to ice the game.

Leading hitters for Smyrna-HI were Crawford Pigott, 4-8, Mac Pigott, 2-5 and Snoball Gaskill, 3-7.

For the losing Agassiz team Bob Ballard had 4-7, Taylor, 3-7, Lloyd Culpepper, 2-8, and Earl Sells, 1-3.

A revamped last place Newport team journeyed to Atlantic Sunday and trounced the front-running Atlantic All-Stars in both ends of their doubleheader by scores of 16-10 and 6-4.

Mel Adeox, formerly manager of Morehead City, picked up the victory in the opener, with the loss going to Gary Morris.

In the nightcap Milton Gould was credited with the win, with the loss going to Johnny Willis.

Of late the Newport team has been strengthened with the acquisition of new players including the aforementioned Adeox, and the boys are trying their best to get into the playoffs.
