

Salter Path, Atlantic Win Sunday Contests

Salter Path won the opening contest from Beaufort Sunday afternoon, and then played a tie in the nightcap that was called because of the curfew in the Carteret County Baseball League.

The victory left Salter Path in second place in the loop, with Smyrna-Harkers Island still in top spot at this writing.

Bobby Bass pitched Salter Path to a 7-5 victory in the opener with the loss going to Herb Mason. In the nightcap Jerry Pittman was the pitcher for Salter Path and Bradley McIntosh did the twirling for Beaufort. The game was knotted at 7 when it was called off.

In the only other action Sunday Atlantic defeated Newport 10-6.

Standings in the league at the moment find Smyrna-HI in first spot, Salter Path in second, Atlantic in third, Newport in fourth, the Agassiz in fifth and Beaufort in the cellar.

Manager Earl Sells of the Agassiz has announced that his ball club is dropping out of the loop and will not play off the games, it were rained out earlier in the season.
