

Atlantic Beats Salter Path In Playoff Game Sunday

Atlantic won the first game of the final playoff series in the County Baseball League Sunday at Atlantic when the All-Stars posted a 6-5 decision over Salter Path.

Don Willis was the winning hurler for the All-Stars and the loss was chalked up by Bobby Bass.

The two teams will finish their series Sunday at Salter Path with Atlantic needing but one victory to clinch the playoff championship.

Atlantic was the winner of the league pennant, with Salter Path winding up in a tie for second place in the league standings with Smyrna-Harkers Island.

The contests on Sunday will be of seven-inning duration, and in the event that Atlantic loses the first game, a second will be played. League play will end officially on Sunday.
