

Atlantic at Salter Path Sunday for Playoffs

Salter Path will play host to the Atlantic All-Stars Sunday as the final playoff series in the County Baseball League comes to an end.

The Atlantic team has a 1-0 lead in games in the best two of three series which will be completed in either a single seven-inning contest, or in a pair of seven-inning games.

It is expected that either Bobby Bass or Jerry Pittman will do the mound chores for Manager Tye Frost's Salter Path team.

Manager John Hamilton is expected to send either Joe Willis or Don Willis to the hill for the Atlantic forces.

In the first game played last Sunday at Atlantic the hometeam was returned the winner by a 6-5 score with Don Willis being credited with the victory and the loss going to Bobby Bass.

Johnny Willis, Buddy Willis, Jack Rose and Hamilton are expected to lead the hitting attack for the All-Stars, and the Salter Path heavy hitters are expected to be Purcell Jones, Harold Bass, Bobby Bass.
