

Pittman, Thomas Hurl hutout over Dixon 8-0

Head City twirlers Jerry Pittman and Walter Adams teamed Tuesday to hurl a no hit-no run game over on the Eagles diamond, downing the visitors, 8-0. Thomas also starred in the batter's box, connecting one time, a homer in the third inning, and scored three runs. Adams started on the hill for the home team and pitched shutout ball for five innings.

Adams came on in the top of the first and proceeded to take up the first two innings. Pittman left off. Thomas was the winning pitcher. B. Smith, another twirler, was charged with the loss.

Eagles Win Sixth
Eagles have now won six games while dropping one. The next game will take place Monday at the Eagles field when they encounter Camp Lejeune's Devilpups. The game is idle today.

Eagles started off sloppily, giving up four bobbles in the first inning when five men faced them. Raynor, first Dixon man to bat, was safe at first on Jerry Connor's throw at third.

Connor took second as Norman Larabee bobbled the throw from catcher Bobby Willis in an attempt to catch the ball. After two outs, Larabee reached first on Thomas' throw with Raynor going to second.

Connor grounded out from Bradintosh to Thomas to end the first.

Eagles Score
Head City drew first blood in the second on two free passes, a walk, a strikeout, and a hit. Thomas Kemp Wickizer drew walks. Bradintosh bunted in front of the plate and catcher James elected to

Pamlico High Tops Jones Central 12-4 In Slugfest Tuesday

Pamlico County High School's baseball team clubbed three Jones Central twirlers for 17 hits Tuesday that produced 12 runs. The Spuds downed Jones Central 12-4.

Adams, Jones Central starter, was charged with the loss and Larry Barker, of the Spuds, was credited with the win.

The Spuds jumped on Adams for five runs in the first and got another off reliever Heath in the second. They added two more in the fourth and jumped on Smith in the seventh for four.

Jones Central scored three in the first and one in the seventh.

Barker limited Jones Central to four hits, striking out 14. He also poled a three-run homer in the first. Larry Prescott, Kenneth Dixon and Robert Gaskill went three for three for Pamlico.

John Metts poled a round tripper for Jones Central.

Swansboro Nips Smyrna Nine 8-4

Swansboro High's baseball team collected seven hits off Smyrna pitcher Jim Lewis Thursday in handing the Smyrna Nine an 8-4 loss.

Lewis pitched tight ball until the middle innings, giving up six runs in the final three frames. The game was tied 2-2 until the fourth when Swansboro scored two runs, to lead 4-2.

Smyrna came back in the fifth scoring twice to put the game into another tie. Swansboro took the game with a four-run seventh inning.

Losing pitcher was Lewis, who went all the way. He gave up eight runs, seven hits, and fanned six. Winning pitcher was Cal Duplissey, who gave up four runs, five hits, and whiffed eight.

Of the five hits given up by Duplissey, Osborne Owens got a double. Cal Duplissey with two for three and Reeves, two for five, led Swansboro's attack.

Smyrna will travel to Pamlico County today for a tilt with the Spuds. Roy Styron will start on the slab for Smyrna with Robert Gaskill getting the nod for Pamlico.
